

Solar Events and Activities

Wednesday, March 20 at 1:00 pm

Wellness Wednesday: April's Eclipse with Alissa Preston, Findlay Hancock Alliance

This Alzheimer's Association sponsored event provides a different health and wellness presentations the 3rd Wednesday of every month! Each presentation will feature local community leaders and organizations providing beneficial wellness information for those 50 and up! Registration required. 419.423.8496. Free.

Monday, March 25 at 10:00 am

Art Class: AMA – “The Eclipse”

This class is perfect for beginners! Receive step-by-step instructions from Mackenzie of Awakening Minds Art. Only 10 spots available. Registration and $15 due by March 18.

Monday, March 25 at 10:00 am

Morning Conversations: The Solar Eclipse presented by Imagination Station

The program will consist of a presentation on the science behind the solar eclipse, a discussion of safety while viewing the eclipse, and a hands-on activity to explore the Earth-Moon-Sun relationship. Each program will be 1 hour. There will be another offering of this presentation on Monday, April 1 at 1:00 pm for those who cannot attend on this date and time. Limited Space. Registration required. Free.

Keep Current: “Spinoffs from the Space Program”

Monday, March 25 at 1:00 pm

Do you know what everyday items you use were created from the Space Program? Jim Jaffe, retired attorney and university professor facilitates discussion based on current events.

Registration required. Free.

Tuesday, March 26 from 9:00 am to 12:30 pm

Sewing: Solar Eclipse Commemorative Mug Rug

The total solar eclipse is coming! Join us to create your own commemorative mug rug with space-themed fabric and a special embroidered strip depicting elements of the eclipse. Some knowledge of machine sewing is helpful. All supplies included. Instructor: Sharon Weddell. Registration and $20 due by March 19.

Tuesday, March 26 at 10:00 am

Extra Senior Cinema: “Eclipse Over America”

Join us for a special senior cinema as we view the documentary based on the 2017 total solar eclipse. This one-hour documentary was originally broadcast as a NOVA special on PBS in 2017. Registration required. Free.

Wednesday, March 27 at 11:30 am

Sunrise Cooking Class: Cosmic Bark

Come learn a new recipe and test out what you made! Sponsored by Sunrise Senior Living. Limited space. Must register by September 20.

Thursday, March 28 at 10:00 am

Morning Conversations: Eclipse Information and History presented by Armstrong Museum

This presentation will cover what an eclipse is, the history of eclipses in Ohio, and eclipse safety for viewing. Registration required. Free

Evening Conversations: Weather with 13ABC

Thursday, March 28 at 6:00 pm

Derek Witt, Meteorologist for 13ABC, will join us for a presentation on weather and the eclipse. He might even be able to give us a projected forecast of what the weather might look like on April 8. Registration required. Free.

Monday, April 1 from 10:00 am to 1:00 pm

Art Class: Drawing – Conte Sticks – “Solar Eclipse”

Let’s make this year’s Solar Eclipse on Monday, April 8, 2024, Memorable by Drawing an illustration using Conte Stick Pastels. The Black paper background allows for Dramatic Results! Come celebrate this event together! All supplies included. Instructor Cindy Meadows. Registration and $30 due by March 25.

Monday, April 1 at 1:00 pm

Afternoon Conversations: The Solar Eclipse presented by Imagination Station

The program will consist of a presentation on the science behind the solar eclipse, a discussion of safety while viewing the eclipse, and a hands-on activity to explore the Earth-Moon-Sun relationship. Each program will be 1 hour. This is the same presentation as March 25 and is offered for those who could not attend that date. Limited Space. Registration required. Free.

Tuesday, April 2 at 1:00 pm

Nature Notes with HPD: Solar Eclipse Events with Hancock Parks

Did you know that Findlay is one of the best places in Ohio to view the upcoming solar eclipse? Attend this presentation by the Hancock Parks Dept to discover all of the eclipse activities they have planned.

Registration required. Free.

Wednesday, April 3 from 10:00 am to 2:00 pm

Craft Corner: Basket Weaving – Round, Woven Wreath

If you’ve taken a basket class with Teresa, you’re in for a treat! In celebration of the solar eclipse, this complete wreath will depict the shape of the moon (or sun). This woven wreath will become a blank slate for the creator to style or decorate in the manner they choose and can be used to accent any décor or season. All supplies included. Instructor: Teresa Margraf. Registration and $28 due by March 25.

Thursday, April 4 from 2:00 to 5:00 pm

Craft Corner: Jewelry Making - Solar Necklace & Bracelet

Let’s make this year’s Solar Eclipse on Monday, April 8, 2024, Memorable by creating a Necklace & Bracelet Set representing our Solar System. Can you name ALL the Planets. Come celebrate this event together! All supplies included. Instructor Cindy Meadows. Registration and $30 due by March 28.